MINE WORKERS

WAGES IN KENTUCKY AFFECTED BY THIS MEETING.

Indianapolis, Feb. 10.—The national executive committee of the mine workers will meet here.

The time for holding the joint conferences in the several states have not all been fixed. The Indiana bituminous convention will be held at Terre Haute beginning March 2, and the joint conference on March 10. That of Illinois will be held at Springfield February 15; Kentucky miners and operators will meet in March.

The wage scale signed directly and indirectly affects the wages of 800,000 miners. Those directly affected are the miners in the states of the central competitive district, composed of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and the Pittsburgh district of the Pennsylvania.

Those whose wages are indirectly affected are the 30,000 miners of Central Pennsylvania; 15,000 of Michigan; 14,000 of Iowa; 5,000 of Kentucky; 15,000 of Alabama, and 15,000 of Tennessee, and about 20,000 of Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Indian Territory. All of the latter base their wage demands on the scale adopted in the Central district.

WILL REMAIN HERE

MR. I. S. COBB WILL NOT RETURN TO THE LOUISVILLE POST.

The Louisville Post of yesterday announces that Mr. Irvin S. Cobb, managing editor of the Paducah News-Democrat, will go there and accept a position on the Post, on which paper Mr. Cobb worked before coming to Paducah.

Mr. Cobb, however, will remain in Paducah. Mr. Cobb's many friends here will be pleased to learn that he will continue to make Paducah his home.

Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1 bottle. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb and Co.

One Prayer Always Answered. A friend tells me, says "M. A. P." that he met Mr. Balfour one evening at a dinner party, when the conversation turned on the importance in life of self-confidence. My friend repeated the saying, "God give us a gold conceit o' ourselves." Mr. Balfour heard it, and, bending across, added: "And that, sir, is the only prayer the gods always answer!"

NEW MACHINE AT THE SHOPS—OTHER LATE NEWS.

A new machine was received at the I. C. shops this morning and placed in the woodworking department. It is a moulding machine and one of the biggest in the shop.

Engine No. 206, wrecked at Caneyville several months ago, will be out of the shop tomorrow. The engine was badly wrecked and the machinists had been working steadily on it ever since the accident so that it might be placed in service again as soon as possible. The company is pressing every passenger engine it has in service and the work in the machine shops is being pushed rapidly.

Mr. H. McCourt, superintendent of the Chicago division of the Illinois Central, has recovered after a several months illness and has resumed his duties. He has been promoted to the position of assistant general superintendent of northern and western lines of the road, a deserved promotion of which his many friends will be pleased to learn.

Mr. W. J. Laffey, traveling car tracer of the I. C., is in the city today. He was formerly special agent of the Louisville division of the road.

PRESIDENT AND CARTOONIST.

President Roosevelt's failure to kill a bear on his recent hunting expedition into Mississippi continues to be a matter for almost daily jest at the White House. Lest he forget brain's discretion and complete triumph, a diminutive major ura has for some time occupied a prominent place in nearly every cartoon published by the Washington Post. It is a pitiable little bear with big, innocent eyes, which are cast furtively at the president when he is the subject of the cartoon, and at other times a bear whose eyes seem filled with an unknown fear.

This miserable cub has afforded the president lots of fun and has also had the effect of cooling his ardor for the chase. At one of the White House receptions Mr. Berryman, the cartoonist, was present, and as he passed with others in front of the president and the receiving party Mr. Roosevelt grasped him by the hand and personally introduced him to Mrs. Roosevelt as "the bear man," acknowledging at the same time the amusement which the daily appearance of the bear had caused him, following it with this confession:

"You know," said he, "a feeling of pity comes over me after I have had my laugh, and I don't believe I could find it in my heart ever to kill another bear."—New York Times.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

Henry D. Baldwin, superintendent city water works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniment, but have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c and $1 bottle.

FRUITS THAT ARE REALLY MEDICINE.

It may not be generally known that grapes are almost as good as quinine for malarial troubles and that pineapples are a sure cure for a sore throat.

Tomatoes are perfect liver regulators; they contain a very small portion of mercury; while oranges act on the kidneys very beneficially. Lemons are efficacious in curing and preventing cancerous troubles, and recently lemon juice has been declared by physicians a preventative of typhoid fever, the acetic acid in lemons being said to have a counteracting influence on typhoid germs. Water-cresses act on the lungs, and are said to be a cure for incipient consumption. They certainly have marvelous tonic power, and refresh one after great fatigue.

Lettuce, if taken in time with lemon juice, will cure the jaundice.

A Great Idea.

The supporters of football are assembled in convention. "Gentlemen," says the spokesman, "something must be done to add interest to the game. I regret to acknowledge that in recent years, despite our efforts to wound, maim and kill, the sport has dwindled in public favor. No doubt this is because of the increase in the number of wars and the familiarity of the public with injuries from that cause; also because of the growth of the automobile fad. Hence, as I say, we must do something to put more ginger in the game. The point is, what shall we do?"

Here a shaggy haired man arose in the rear of the hall and begged for a hearing.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I represent the Russo-American society of anarchy, and am also an enthusiastic football player. It occurs to me that if the ball were filled with dynamite instead of air it would—"

But the rest of his remarks were simply drowned in a furious explosion of mad applause.—Baltimore American.

Hebrew in High Office.

Sir Marcus Samuel, who became lord mayor of London on Nov. 9, enters on his high position in order of seniority on the aldermanic bench, having received election by the livery men of the city of London recently, according to time-honored custom. He served the office of sheriff seven years ago. He is forty-nine years of age and is associated with firms of Japanese silk and oil importers and Japanese merchants. His succession to the civic chair is interesting for the fact that he is another instance of the Hebrew faith attaining the highest municipal dignity in England.

ANOTHER VETERAN DEAD.

Pewee Valley, Feb. 10.—John B. Patton, aged 83 years, an inmate of the Confederate Home, is dead. He makes the sixth death since the home was opened last fall. Patton enlisted in the Confederate service in October, 1861, and served till April, 1865. He was a member of Shawhan's cavalry battalion, under Gen. Humphrey Marshall.

DEATH IN THE COUNTY.

The three months old child of Alex Smallman died at Cecil, Ky., and was buried today at McKendree cemetery.

Cheating at School

There is a great fraud being perpetrated right in our midst, by which honest persons are cheated out of their rights and honors, says the Louisville Times of a matter of interest everywhere.

Reference is made to the school examinations.

How many of the pupils can go before the teachers and answer review questions without preparation? If they cannot do that, what is the sense in having these examinations, thereby exciting the pupils into cheating?

The scholars are told upon what day they will be examined in certain subjects. They either "cram" or take unto themselves certain "Jacks" to help them out. The boys fasten their "Jacks" to the inside of the coat sleeve by means of a rubber band, and when the examiner passes that way the bit of card board with the notes on it disappears up the sleeve. Girls hide theirs in the bosom of their shirt waist, or in any safe and convenient place about their person.

There is the honest pupil who can answer sensibly any question upon the subjects he has gone over; he passes, perhaps, in the examination, but not with such high marks as the fraud.

There is cheating even in the daily lessons. Instead of having a recitation bench, the pupils are permitted to sit at their desks and recite. They either read their lessons from their books or from copies.

It rests mainly with parents to suppress this fraud. They should instill into the minds of their children that it is better to get a poor report and be brilliant, than to get a brilliant report and be poor in intellect.

If scholars were called to class and examined in their studies without being forewarned, there would be more studying and less, if any, cheating.

There is still another evil in our midst, and that is in the preparation of the young minds for the higher grades. There are some teachers in the primary schools who win their pupils by gentleness, firmness and kindness. The pupils of such teachers learn rapidly and pass to higher grades on their merits. But there are other teachers! Just take a stroll into some of the ward schools, while school is in session. Pause for a few moments in the hall and you will hear one of the teachers screeching in loud, angry tones at her pupils. Perhaps she will inflict corporal punishment, which creates a desire for revenge in the breast of the child. No one has the right to strike a child but the parents.

The following remark was made by one of a crowd of boys who were "swapping" experiences of school life. Said the boy: "I used to get a beating every day because I didn't know my lessons, but pshaw, it is a cinch now! I can cheat like the devil, and she don't know it. What's the use of getting loked every day when you can keep from it."

By the time that boy is ready for the High school cheating will have become an art with him.

Is there no way to suppress this fraud so that the really studious pupils may pass on their merits?
